

I object to weakening the no-phone call rule for the state of Indiana. I do not want calls even from people that do business with me. Life has been extremely nice since we have not been disrupted with all those unnecessary phone calls - ususlly at dinner time.